Rabbi's Column

For the past year Nancy Wiebe Mazurowski has served as the interim Artistic Director and Conductor for our High Holy Day choir and for our congregational choir, Koleynu. Many of us know

Nancy because she has been one of the mainstays in our High Holy Day choir in the soprano section for many years. This year she stepped up to conduct the choir.

During the course of this year Nancy has exhibited her natural grace and skill as a musician and her warmth and sensitivity as a human being in the way that she has lead Koleynu to new heights. She has worked tirelessly to achieve a deep spiritual understanding of our liturgy and to help every member of Koleynu reach new levels of competence and confidence. We are so grateful to Nancy for agreeing to help us during this year of transition. Even as she returns to her singing and teaching career full time, we are pleased that she will still be singing with our High Holiday choir.

On Friday evening June 24th Temple Beth Israel and Koleynu will honor Nancy with a festive Shabbat service and Oneg Shabbat. I am hopeful that you will be present to help us express our deep appreciation to Nancy and to join with Koleynu in "making a joyfu' sound unto God."

Summer is the time for vacations and relaxation. But here at TBI we continue our full complement of activities. One summer variation is, of course, our monthly Shabbat at the Beach. We will gather at Gilson Park in Wilmette on the third Friday of the month (June 17th, July 15th, August 19th) at 6:30 pm for a short Kabbalat Shabbat service, bring your own picnic Shabbat dinner, and dessert to share.

By the way, this is a nice informal introduction to the TBI community. I encourage you to think of yourself as a member of the membership recruitment team. Think about your Jewish relatives, friends and acquaintances, who are not affiliated with a congregation, and bring them to TBI. We are proud of our congregational community; please help us share it.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

by Lory Merritt

Hi! There's a saying: the great teachers allow their students to stand on their shoulders. My exceedingly humble thanks to the many former presidents and lay leaders of Temple Beth Israel (those I know and those who are no longer with us) who have allowed me to stand on their shoulders. Please don't be concerned — my soles are clean.

Some of you may know that I've poured coffee at the Nosh Café for the last umpteen years, and others may or may not know that I had other jobs in and around Temple before that. I had been offered the presidency of TBI a couple of times before accepting. I say that not to brag, but to say that I had been too self-centered, too focused on making the job be "all about me" to genuinely perform its duties from a place of love and gratitude and respect. I first had to learn how not to profane the position and then, myself. It's taken awhile — years. To my many supporters, thank you for your patience.

I think often about Judaism's many opportunities to perform loving acts of kindness and I've come to the conclusion that the world probably won't change because of political pressure or bipartisanship or even war. Yes, political boundaries may change, but I don't think Elijah will be showing up for Passover dinner because of political change. However, a loving act of kindness may change the world, even if only one person at a time. Does the ocean change when one raindrop is added? To a scientist, maybe not. To a poet, maybe. So, I guess it does depend on your reference points, how you look at it! Could TBI ever be THE preferred place for Reform study and engagement of spiritual and secular issues, where people join not because of location but because we're the vibrant community that people want to join? I have a high conviction level on this. I just don't believe; I know this to be true.

What would need to change for you to have as high a conviction level as I do? We'll be discovering each others' reference points in the near future, so stay tuned.

HELP WANTED

Due to an employee's promotion to TBI management, The Nosh Café is looking to hire 4 baristas for the 2011–2012 program year. Hours are most Sundays from 8:00 A.M. to 11:45 A.M. Job duties include set-up, clean up and coffee service throughout the morning. Enjoying coffee, tea, people, your fellow baristas, omelets, the Omelet Lady, school age children, adults, being busy, being really busy, pitching-in, communicating with Nosh Angels, grocery/supply shopping during the week and of course, enjoying the occasional snack are all requirements of the job. Personalized training to Nosh standards will be conducted over the summer, prior to the fall grand opening.

The pay is quite good; being of service brings its own rewards. And to highlight your compensation, you will learn a new "being of service" people skill that will knock your socks off and can be used outside of the Nosh on a daily basis. Dayenu. Socks are not included (but aprons are).

If you're prepared to have a smile on your face that will last from Sunday to Sunday, then please contact The Nosh Café for a confidential interview. Please contact Lory Merritt at 847-831-0919.

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF CONGREGATIONAL LEARNING

School is out and the weather is (hopefully) getting better. The summer is a wonderful time for reconnecting with family, with household projects and the stack of books sitting on the nightstand.

I am looking forward to leaving for Olin Sang Ruby Union Institute on June 19th where I will spend almost a month serving as faculty in Chalutzim, the only Hebrew speaking unit in any camp in the U.S. The last time I was in Chalutzim, Eliana was 5 and Benji wasn't even around yet.

Being at camp is truly being in my "happy place." I am grateful to TBI for not only allowing me but actually encouraging me to spend some time each summer living and learning in the camp environment. The best part of being at camp this and every summer is being able to spend time with TBI kids while at camp. This summer we have over 25 kids who will spend a part of the summer at OSRUI.

Once back, Carolyn and I will be busily preparing for the fall. We have all kinds of exciting plans for next year including a very special outdoor education experience, expanded art program and new and exciting enrichments programs.

I hope to see you at Shabbat at the beach on June 17, July 15 and/or August 19. Feel free to email me with any questions or concerns that arise over the summer. I will have email access while at camp and any other time that I am away.

Wishing you a wonderful summer!

B'shalom,

Lori B. Sagarin

SISTERHOOD NEWS

A little over two years ago, I accepted the nomination for the co-presidency of our Sisterhood. The two years have flown by and I am now preparing to say goodbye to my tenure as co-president.

My first year in office was as co-president with Linn Ullenbrauck. A newbie couldn't ask for a better trainer. Linn has always been a dedicated, enthusiastic and thoughtful leader of this group. When her term ended, I knew I had big shoes to fill. Luckily, the nominating committee gave me the ideal new co-president, Lorri Fishman. Lorri and I are well-matched in temperament and outlook, and she has eagerly absorbed whatever "training" I've thrown her way. So, in short, I have been very fortunate in both my co-presidents.

The last two years have exposed me to several new experiences. As a lawyer by trade, my first instinct – and my training – has been to be an advocate; an arguer, if you will. This wonderful group of women, however, has taught me a different way to proceed. I have learned more of the art of compromise and adjustment. It has been a growth experience for me, especially in learning to chair a meeting of 30 or more, strong, intelligent, dedicated, Jewish women.

I have also been very lucky in the talented and enthusiastic women who have held executive positions in Sisterhood over the past two years. All that Sisterhood accomplishes can be traced back to them and to the able women who assist them. A president is only as good as her cabinet.

I will miss many things about being co-president of Sisterhood TBI. But I know I will continue to play an active role in the life of our organization and our congregation. I also know that the nominating committee has once again worked its wonders and presented Sisterhood with another ideal co-president in Jolie Rubin. I am confident that Jolie and Lorri will make a wonderful team and that our organization will continue to thrive.

Dale Cone
Sisterhood Co-President

Mitzvah Day 2011

Temple Beth Israel was full of activity on May 15 for the second annual Mitzvah Day. Every generation was represented in a vast variety of activities which benefitted the Temple community, the local community and the global community. Each student was invited to take a sapling to add more life to their homes and in honor of the nearly 1,000 trees that were planted in the Carmel region of Israel thanks to the generous donations of members of Temple Beth Israel.
